

EISENHOWER VISITS AMA CORPS

President Dwight D. Eisenhower is greeted at his Mother's Birthplace by a committee of dignitaries headed by Gen. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., Principal of Augusta Military Academy. L. to R. Mrs. Curry Carter, Sen. Curry Carter, Sen. Harry Byrd, Hon. A. Willis Robertson, The President and Gen. Roller.

President's Presence Is Termed A "Whirlwind Visit"

President Dwight D. Eisenhower made a whirlwind visit to Augusta County on Thursday, October 27th. His visit was the result of an invitation extended him by the Woodrow Wilson Foundation upon the occasion of their annual board meeting. Acceptance was probably prompted in large measure by his desire to re-visit the birthplace of his mother, Ida Stover Eisenhower, which is located near Ft. Defiance and A.M.A.

The Corps of Augusta was fortunate in that the full program of activities planned for the President brought him close enough to the Academy so that he accepted the suggestion that he include A.M.A. in his tour of the area. The Corps was in formation on the parade grounds so that they could be reviewed by the President as he drove around the Clay Bowl with his caravan of secret service escort, newsmen and many local and state dignitaries.

Though the visit was a short one, the Cadet Corps was thrilled that "Ike" included us in his day's activities and put on a show worthy of the occasion.

General Roller Host

Prior to his arrival at A.M.A., Mr. Eisenhower visited his mother's birthplace for some 30 minutes. Here he was greeted by a committee headed by Gen. Chas. S. Roller, Jr. T.V. newscasts Thursday evening attested to the cordiality of the visit as the President and the "Big Boy" were seen on the grounds — and entering the Stover residence arm-in-arm.

Capt. Crawford Addresses Letter To Cadet Corps

Cadets of the Corps:

What a fine start we've made TOGETHER — and that's exactly the way we want the year to end on the sixth of June — as the top corps in the history of our fine school.

That we've done this is due to the support of every officer, non-com and private in the corps. But we can only continue to excel if we continue to work side by side in seeing that every phase of life at AMA is entered in to with the complete cooperation of everyone.

In just a few short weeks, you all have come to know and love our principal, Gen. Roller. Take him as your example, gentlemen! Watch the love and devotion which he puts into the school. Look at the sacrifices which he makes daily in order for us to have anything which we need or ask for. Check the hours which he spends in working for the betterment of mankind. And now, let's apply this to ourselves.

There is no reason for us to have boys constantly breaking the new cadet code because of sloppy bracing. We have some outstanding new cadets who are bracing as well as any VMI cadet. Let's see you all do the same — let's make every visitor realize that we have a corps of boys who care enough to obey the rules even when no officers are around.

Let's have boys out for all the sports . . . and let's have some of the lustiest cheering heard in Augusta county at ALL HOME GAMES, regardless of whether it's for the big Varsity or the small sardines!

Let's get together and enjoy our dances. This means that everyone has to cooperate in order to have a truly successful social event.

Let's study! Don't abuse the break at 8! Learn; apply ourselves every minute that we can—

Battle Group Organized Under Crawford's Leadership

Under the proven and able leadership of Battle Group Commander, Cadet Captain Jim Crawford, assisted by Cadet Captain Chris Horsey, Adjutant, the 1960-61 Augusta Military Academy Corps has been organized into highly competitive companies. The excellent appearance of the corps at drill and Sunday Dress Parade attest to the quality of leadership and co-operation of every member of the student body. The P.M.S. and T. expresses itself as being highly pleased with the manner in which the Group has progressed in these few short weeks since the opening of school.

Qualities of leadership have resulted in permanent appointments of the following officers and non-coms.

IN MEMORIUM

CADET JOHN TOTH

February, 1944 — November 10, 1960

Memorial Service in form of prayer and meditations by several Faculty Officers and Cadet Capt. Crawford in Mess Hall on Nov. 16th. Corps formation in front of Barracks at 10 A.M. Monday, Nov. 14th. In memory of fellow Cadet John Toth, the entire Corps was called to "Present Arms" and the U. S. Flag atop the Tower was returned to full Mast after flying at Half Mast from day of Toth's death. At the same hour, a Requiem High Mass, with Military funeral was said for Cadet Toth in his parish church, St. Michael's Catholic Church in Perth Amboy, N. J. His Casket was half draped and bore a blanket of Red and White Carnations, the gift of the A. M. A. Cadet Corps.

Pallbearers were Cadet Battle Group Commander, Captain James F. P. Crawford, Cadet Captain Chris Horsey, Cadet Cpl. Kessell, Cadet Pvt. Dorton, Cadet Pvt. George Thompkins, and Cadet Pvt. Hack.

A Memorial Mass was celebrated in St. Francis Catholic Church, Staunton, Va., on Thursday morning at 6:30 A.M. and was attended by many fellow Cadets.

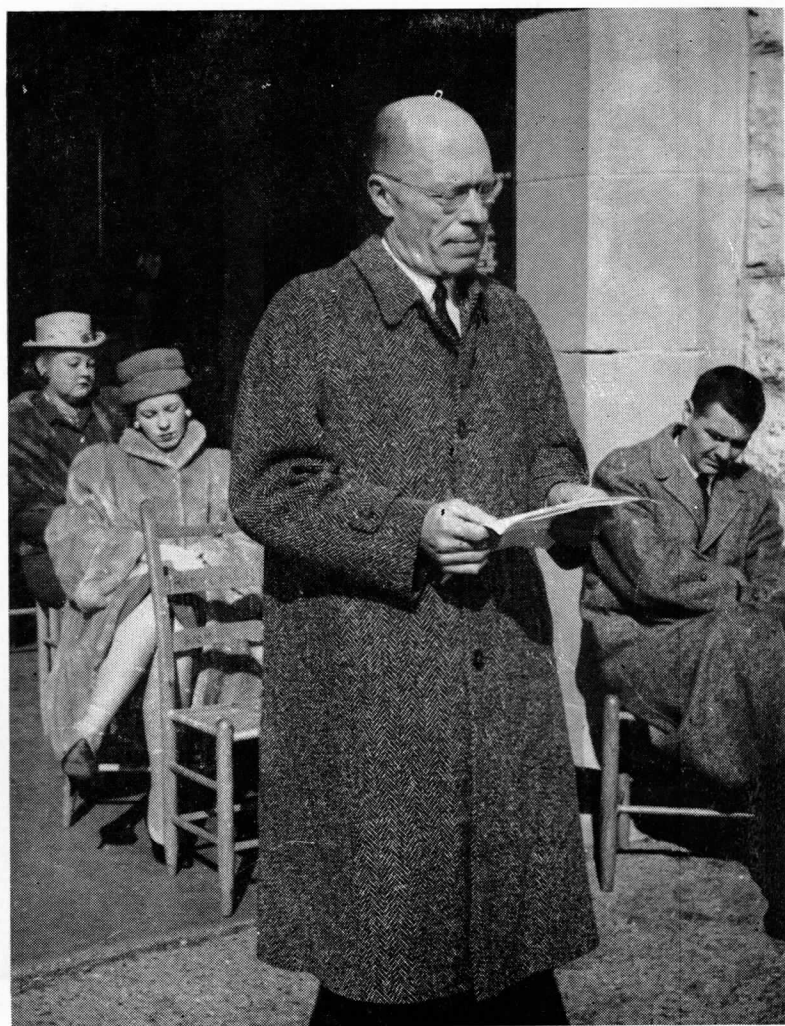

A. M. A. PAYS ANNUAL TRIBUTE TO HER WAR DEAD ON NOVEMBER 11

Memorial Services at the Academy are opened by Gen. Chas. S. Roller, Jr., Principal, who recalled the scene in France at that same hour, forty two years before, Nov. 11, 1918.

Invocation is offered by The Rev. Richard E. Hildebrandt, pastor of Old Stone Church, and Chaplain of Augusta Military Academy.

Col. Charles F. Light, Jr., graduate of V. M. I. and Dean of the Washington and Lee Law School addresses Cadet Corps.

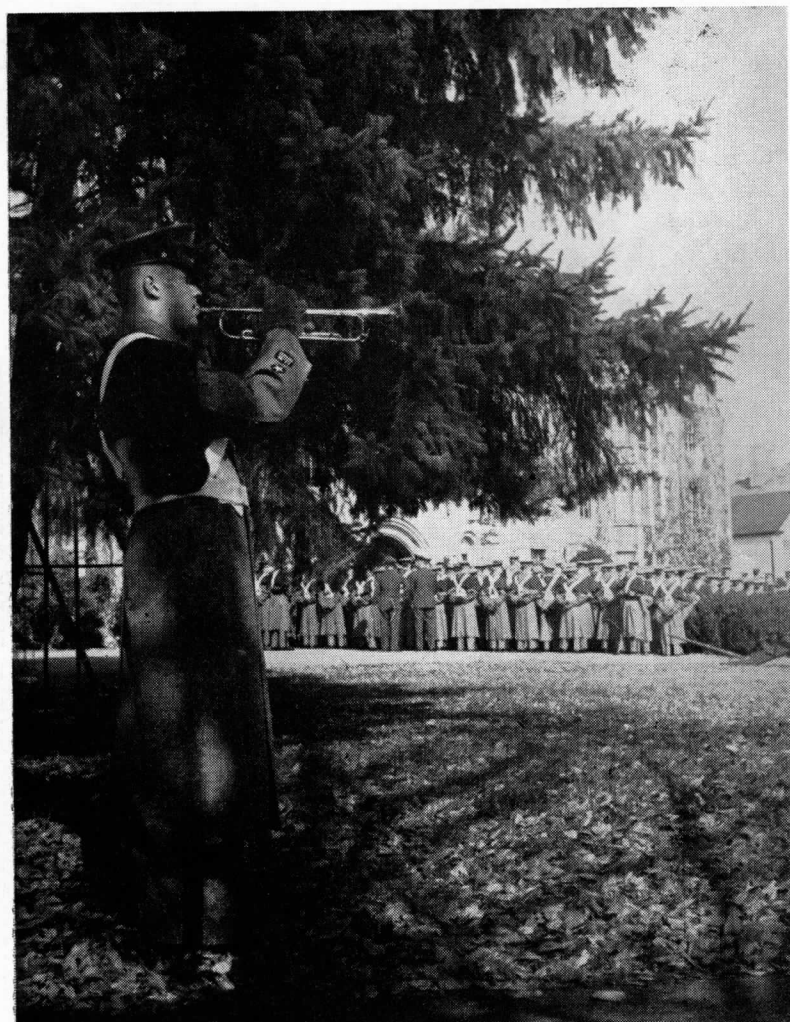

Major Samuel S. Wales, Commandant of Cadets, calls the Roll of Honor of A.M.A.'s War Dead, as the roll is answered by Cadets standing in their names and places with a reverent, "Died on the Field of Honor, Sir." The Roll contained names of former Cadet who died in both World Wars and in the Korean War. This year the name of Cadet Toth, who had died the day before was added to the list called.

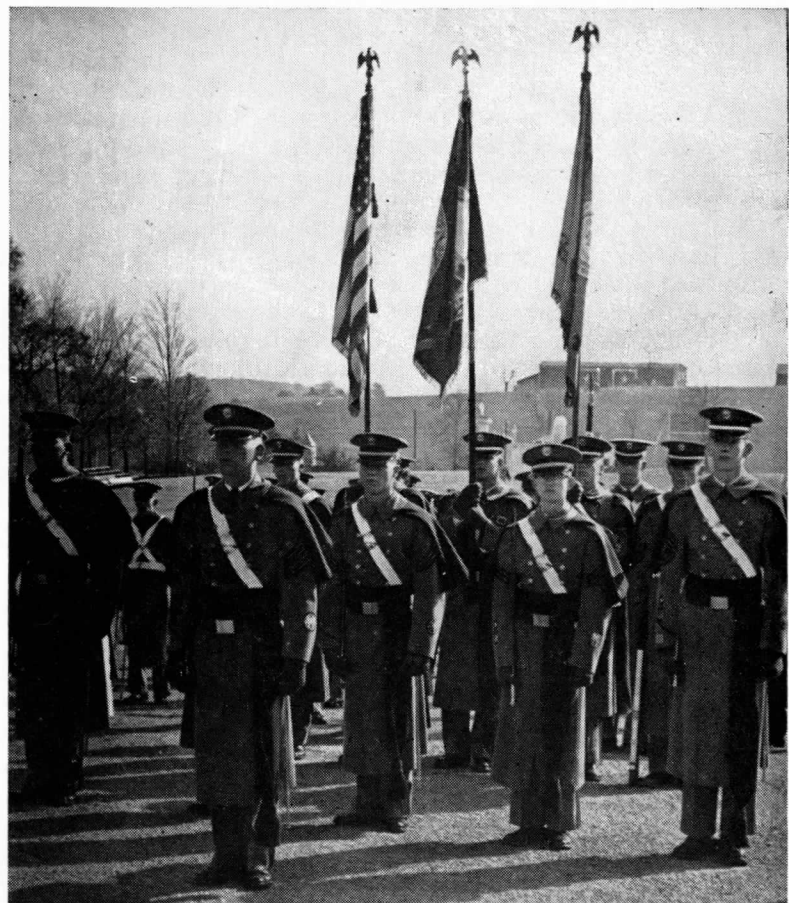

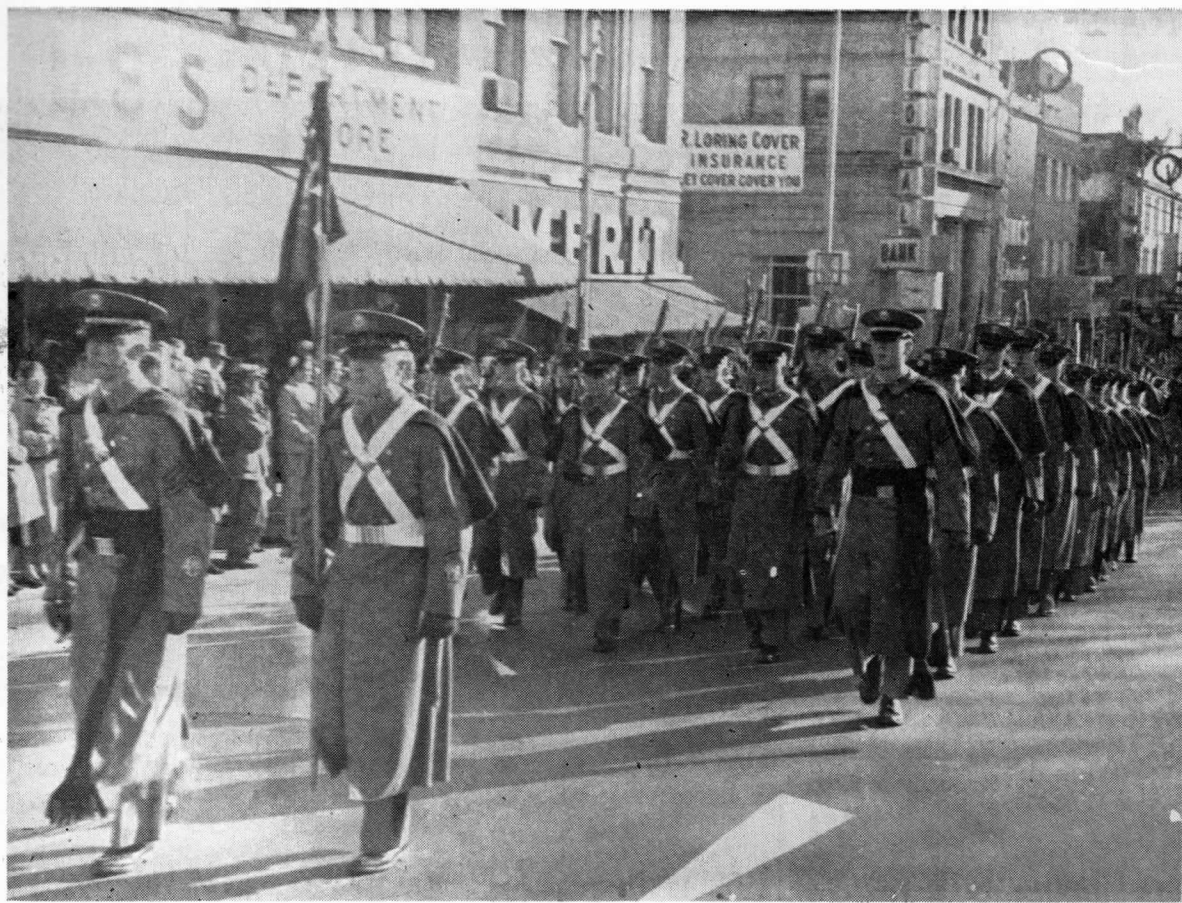

Each year on November 11, Augusta Military Academy pauses in her daily routine to pay Honor and Respect to her Cadets who have given their lives for their Country on the Field of Battle.

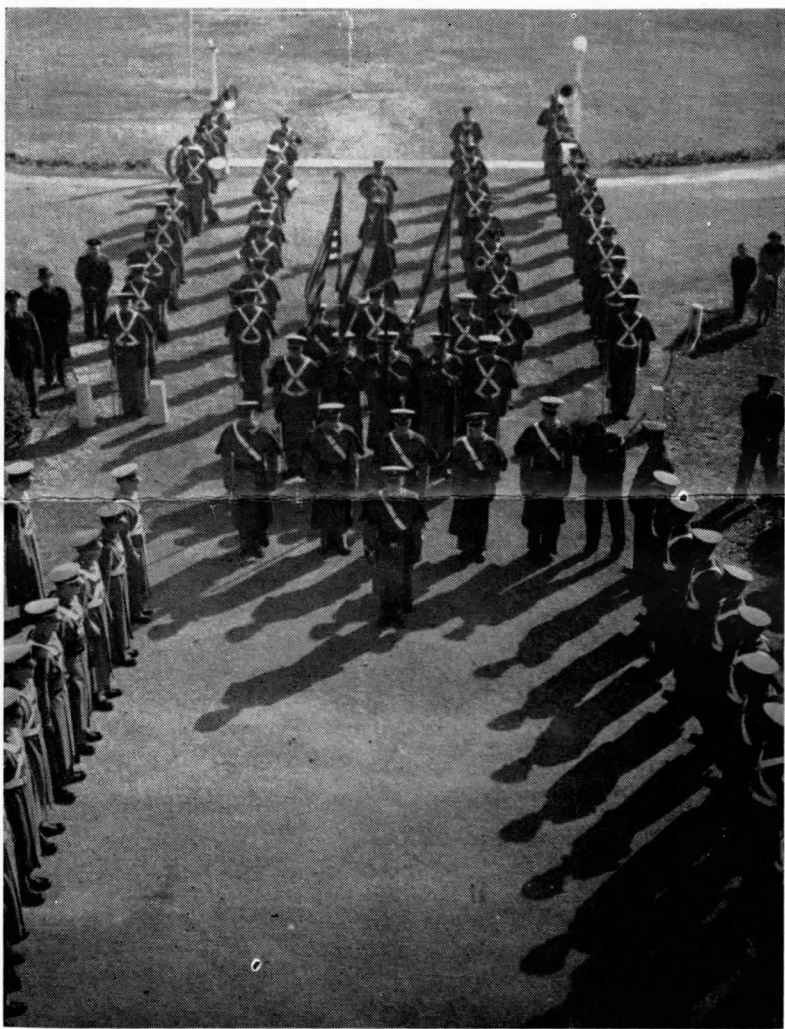

"The Big Boy" leads his "Boys" in Harrisonburg's Annual Armistice Day Parade. In the Jeep with Gen. Roller are Major Livick, Major Stark, P.M.S. & T. and Major Wales. Perhaps part of the reason for the General's broad smile is the fact that he is passing the reviewing stand in which are seated Mrs. Roller, Mrs. Livick and her children, and Mrs. Wales.

Triple Taps resounds from this spot, with the Corps in the background, from Lilly Valley and from the Band formation. Except for the echoe of the bugles, it is as still as 11 A.M. on Nov. 11, 1918.

In Traditional Ceremonies held each year at Augusta, the Staff and Colors play an important role. The Staff lead in the services, during which the Band played several numbers appropriate to the occasion.

From 3rd Tower, the band is seen in precision formation during a part of A.M.A.'s Memorial Service in honor of her War Dead.

Our Honored Dead

On Nov. 11, each year, the Staff and Corps of Cadets of A.M.A. honors its war dead in appropriate ceremonies. It is fitting and right that we do so, for in keeping alive the memory of those who gave their life upon the field of battle, we are keeping alive those principals for which they died. "Died upon the field of Honor, Sir," will echo through our front arch as Cadets standing in place of each former Cadet who died in battle, will respond to the Roll of Honor of Augusta Military Academy's War Dead. Followed by a speaker of renown, Taps will sound, not as a hope that our dead will sleep on forever, but rather that those injustices which have brought about World conflict in the past will never rise again to plague the peoples of the world. Sleep on you dead heroes. May your sleep never be disturbed by the other conflicts which caused you to yield your most cherished possession—your own life.

Men Do Not Fail

In the Adjutant's Office there is small card upon which these words appear, "Men Do Not Fail, They Just Stop Trying". I wonder how many of my fellow Cadets have noticed this bit of wisdom, and if so, how many have taken the message to heart. We at A.M.A. soon learn what is thought of those who do not try, for daily their names are read aloud in the Mess Hall and those Cadets are required to go to a special afternoon study period under faculty supervision where they are required to try to do that which they failed to do the night before. Failure to pass all grades on report cards, failure to do home work, failure to do the many tasks which are a part of each day, is in reality no more nor less than a failure to try to do ones best ability.

Every one of us has heard a fellow Cadet try hard to explain to his teacher why he has failed to do his assigned home work. The teacher can see through these feeble excuses; he can readily see that the real reason is a failure to try, or to try hard enough. It has been said that you can fool all of the people some of the time. Not trying is not one of the ways you can fool anyone—not even yourself—or should I say, least of all, yourself.

Have you failed to do your home-work? Have you failed to clean your rifle for inspection? Have you failed to make yourself neat in appearance? Have you failed your teammate? Have you let the corps down at Parade? Have you failed, or have you not tried?

Enrollment

five hundred and fifty Cadets, new and old, were enrolled, uniformed and processed during the first two days.

In order to accommodate the large corps, additions were made both to the faculty and to the physical properties of the school. The following faculty members were added to the academic staff:

Several vital additions and improvements were ready for the opening of the school year. A very modern and convenient new kitchen replaced the former group of old wooden buildings which had served as kitchen, bake shop, storage, refrigeration, etc. The new, fireproof building houses all the facilities under one roof. The entire heating system had been revamped by conversion to oil. Two large boilers with oil burners were installed in a sturdy metal building adjacent to the former boiler room. To provide additional class room space, two rooms were added to the north end of Hoover Hall. The larger enrollment meant more members to Headquarters Co. and so an addition was added to the C.W. Barracks.

visit the library and learn about what's going on in the world. Seek information from everyone of our teachers — and gentlemen, you'll never find a group of men who are more desirous of helping you in every way than our faculty members are.

Let's remember that the Ten Commandments work seven days a week, not just on Sundays. Make our worship in our churches together mean something to us, and let's carry it over into the week. No officer in the army is allowed to curse his men . . . and here we want no cursing. And that means that we're going to stand behind the Honor Committee in every way. We want everyone to realize that AMA cadets will not lie, steal, nor cheat!

Gentlemen, it all boils down to one thing: be proud of your school, and only by entering into every activity here can you truly gain all that you need. You are welcome at any time, and I mean this, to bring your problems to me, for we can and we shall work constantly together to deserve the honor of that title Gen. Roller bestowed on us — "THE BEST CORPS IN HISTORY!"

Recall Wins Top Honors In National Ratings

The Recall, A.M.A. yearbook has received several top honors in judging by the National School Yearbook Association, and by National Scholastic Press Association. In the former judging, the Recall was rated "Excellent" and in the later it was rated, "All American". Those familiar with these organizations will appreciate fully the very high honor which have been bestowed on Cadet Herbert Widener, Editor of the Recall, and upon Major C. E. Savedge, Faculty Advisor.

NSPA, in commenting on the excellence of the Recall, said in part: "Congratulation-All American." The Recall's basic idea and plan are superior. There is excellent photo development throughout the book. There are splendid photoes of A.M.A. which the cadets can treasure all for the rest of their lives. Your use of "Focus on Life" with accompanying photos are excellent and show ingenuity."

The National School Yearbook Association stated that, "Your advertising section is excellent. You have insured readership for the ads through inclusion of photos in the layouts — photos taken in places of business in Staunton and photos of those associated with A.M.A." Again, "Your faculty and curriculum are well presented. It is indeed good to combine them. The scope is quite good, interesting and informative".

THE BAYONET congratulates Major Savedge and his staff for these high honors.

Mrs. A. S. Roach Dies

Mrs. A. S. Roach, affectionately known as "Auntie" to many cadets of Augusta died at her home in Boonsboro, Md. on Wednesday, Oct. 12.

Mrs. Roach had her nephew John Naill attend Augusta for four years and it was through her son attending Augusta that she learned to know and love all that is Augusta.

She was in attendance at every important function of the school ever since 1923 when John Naill was graduated.

She was a very close friend of Mrs. Warren S. Robinson (Maggie Belle Roller) sister of General Charles S. Roller.

Four cadets: Bill Pugh, Vic Kerwick, John Davis and Cam Lewis and Major Hoover represented the school at her funeral and they acted as pallbearers.

Mrs. Roach was a donor of the Maggie Belle Roller Loyalty Medal presented at graduation every year.

Varsity Gets Into Win Column In Mid-Season

Sports Editorial SPORTSWISE—

Sportswise, since way back on Labor Day, the interest around these parts has been FOOTBALL. . . . Varsity Football, Jr., Varsity Football, Tigers, Peeps, Backlot Football, Front Field Football, and just plain Football. That does not mean that on occasion some hardy and rugged individualist has not been seen on the Tennis Courts, or some hearty soul has not been seen with golf bag over his shoulder, headed in the direction of "Ingleside". These latter two, with an occasional swim, all has its place, but Fall of the Year is Football time Sportswise, Augusta-wise, and Nationalwise. There will come a time of the year when the Tennis Courts will be crowded, and Golfers will be thumbing to Ingleside, and the swimmers will be trying for positions on the team, and Basketball Ball and Wrestling will hold the interest of a sizable group. We repeat, Fall has been Football time.

How have we faired in this Major Sport? Couple of days ago Coach Ralph was asked how he personally felt about the Varsity Season. His reply was just about what we expected. "At this date the Football team has not completed its season, but it has been very successful, no matter what happens in the next eight days. We have a very fine Football team because we have better team unity than we have ever had before at A.M.A., since I've been here. This team unity has been welded not by out starters but by our boys who don't play a great deal. Baker, Calvert, Conner and Chapman have cheered the boys playing with such enthusiasm and spirit that it has sparked the entire team. I would like to praise, with much gusto, the help that has been given me by John Thornton and Mal. Livick. John has made the linemen what they are, and to him goes the credit for their efficiency. Livick has done an equally fine job." Bill went on and on with praise for the assistant coaches and the team, right down to the third assistant water boy. Forgive us Bill if we don't put all you said in print. We don't want too many enlarged heads around.

As indicated by scores, one would have to say that the Tigers had the best season of all the teams. The Tigers under the able coaching of Col. Hoover have done a fine job and won some tough ones. I'm certain Coach Hoover feels he had the best season he has ever had with his boys, and he never misses a chance to tell anyone who will listen what a "Grand bunch of boys I have". You are entirely right, Colonel, and it is hoped that some of your fighting Tigers will move to the Varsity next year.

Elsewhere on the Sport's page you will see a feature article on the J.V. season. This story tells the combined opinions of T.V. Coaches, Col. Duff and Lt. Reid. Their wins and scores are not impressive, but their accomplishments in training future Varsity players cannnt be overestimated. The score isn't everything, and the J.V. season was successful as measured by all of the other standards.

We can't sign off without a big word of congratulations to Coach McDowell and his boys down in the Junior School. Those youngsters just had a tremendous sea-

AMA Defeats League Leading Massanutten Military Academy

Augusta Military Academy came out fighting the second half and scored three touchdowns in less than ten minutes to defeat league leading Massanutten Military Academy 42 to 21.

Massanutten's loss, along with the defeat of SMA, served to shake up the standings of the Virginia's Military League. Both Massanutten and SMA are now in second place, while Greenbrier took over first place by virtue of percentage.

The victory was the first of the year for AMA, and they certainly did it up big. Led by the hard running of halfback Wayne Blaylock and fullback Bob Gevrekian, AMA had their ground attack down perfect. To prove they could throw the ball, AMA scored their first touchdown by virtue of a pass from Slim Hite to end Alex Bergman.

The game started out close, with tht score at halftime 13 to 7 in favor of Massanutten. However, AMA came out charged in the third quarter, and before they knew it, Massanutten found themselves behind by two touchdowns. After this splurge, Massanutten never regained its power of the first half, and although they scored with an electrifying return of a kickoff, it was too late for them to get back into the game.

AMA Down 13-0

Throwing few passes, AMA hurt Massanutten most along the ground with off tackle dives by Blaylock and Gevrekian, who once given an inch, took a mile. Showing they could run the ends, halfbacks Blaylock and Bill Mitchell kept the defense split, enabling Gevrekian to plow up the middle for huge yardage.

Weyman Recovers Fumbles

The AMA defense was to be congratulated in the victory. Ex amples of their alert plays were in the closing moments of the first half when they intercepted a pass, then intercepted another when the offense lost the ball the same way. Also, defensive tackle Weyman pounced on two fumbles that later led to scores.

Resume of J.V. Football Season

The Junior varsity Footballers play their final game of the season with Fishburn on the Home Field on Friday, Nov. 18th. The J.V. Coaches, Col. Duff and Lt. Reid feel that more has been accomplished than this seasons 1-3-1 record might indicate. The emphasis in the program this year has been on giving young, relatively inexperienced players needed experience and ground work in the fundamentals. As A.M.A. finishes its first year of football competition in the Military League, this aspect of J.V. Football should not be under estimated. The J. V. team has used the same basic offense and defense as the Varsity.

The "Baby Blue Streaks" opened the 1960 season with a 6-0 win over a fellow League member Massanutten on Oct. 6th. In the second gridiron bout (Oct. 25th) they battled Greenbrier to a scoreless 0-0. It was a disappointing game as the A.M.A. eleven had many opportunities to score than their opponents but couldn't quite get the pigskin over. The tackle play of Jim Fletcher and Jim Cunningham was excellent in these early games, however, Coaches Duff and Reid have been very disappointed with both offensive and defensive line play since the Greenbrier game. The Miller School Varsity rolled over A.M.A. J.V.'s by a score of 46-0. Nov. 8th saw the A.M.A. eleven losing to Woodbury Forest 19-0. It was in this game that Defensive Captain and returning letterman George Hundall received serious injuries. Hundall has been sorely missed in the J.V. line. In their last game it was A.M.A. 21 and Randolph Macon 32. here the Blue Streaks played their finest football of the season, yet losing 25-0.

Particularly pleasing to the J.V. Coaches this Fall has been the improved play of Junior back Ricky Tessade, Jr. Guards Ed. Hedrick, Soph linemen Pete Schwind and Bob Harnsberger, 8th grade linemen Wade Hansborough and the consistently fine Fullback play of Soph John Crutcher.

Augusta Military Academy Blanks E. C. Glass High

LYNCHBURG — Augusta Military Academy rolled over E. C. Glass High School 19-0 Saturday night behind the smooth quarterbacking performance of Staunton's Eddie Trott.

Augusta Military Academy had one touchdown called back by a penalty in the first half. But on the very next play, fullback Bob Gevrekian carried it over again from about five yards out. Gevrekian got into the game despite a recent bout with flu.

In the last half A.M.A. cushioned their margin with a touchdown by halfback Bud Allison on an end run, and a marker by halfback Wayne Blaylock on a 45-yard end run.

Allison kicked one of the points, narrowly missing the other two.

Tiger Eleven Defeat Rock Hill Jayvee 7-0

The Tiger football eleven defeated the Rock Hill Jayvee team from Charlottesville in a hard fought game final score of 7-0.

The score means little as the blue and white Tigers dominated the game throughout the afternoon.

The first half saw the Tigers trying to get their offensive going only to lose possession of the ball on fumbles.

The Rock Hill outfit threatened but not seriously as they only penetrated the AMA territory as far as the forty-yard stripe.

AMA elected to receive the kickoff in the second half and Dorrington ran the kickoff to mid-field stripe. Then the blue and white team got going and on a deflected pass Shoemaker skirted end for forty yards and the first tally Shoemaker made the extra point.

Later on the early part of the fourth quarter AMA took the ball to the three yard stripe where Shoemaker again hit paydirt only to fumble the ball in the end zone. Rock Hill attempted to score via the aerial route only to have their passes intercepted and AMA remained in possession of the ball at the end of the game.

AMA Tigers Are Victors At Woodberry Forest — 27 - 6

The AMA Tigers journeyed to Woodberry Forest Monday, Oct. 24 and returned with a 27-6 victory.

Early in the first quarter Woodberry caught the AMS Tigers napping by their spread formation and they gathered in a TD when Robinson skirted his end behind competent blocking of his fellow team mates.

In the second quarter the AMA Tigers got rolling and with a variety of plays succeeded in tallying their first score. Al Dorrington went on a revised end around play.

A high wind with the velocity of 25 miles per hour and a temperature of 43 hampered both teams throughout the game. AMA threw Woodberry for several losses. They punted to AMA quarterback and safety man Dorrington who ran forty-five yards for our second TD. The point was made by Shoemaker. This run came just as the half ended.

In the third quarter AMA got down to work and Woodberry threats were stopped frequently. Woodberry took to the air and after making several nice gains Shoemaker and McMahon intercepted several passes. At this point AMA took to the air and on passes from Dorrington to the ends mulated when Wells jumped up onto the air between three Woodberry players and snatched a pass and scampered for our third TD.

Shortly before the game ended Woodberry with the ball on their thirty yard marker elected to punt on fourth down and against the high wind. The ball ended up on their 18 yard marker where AMA took over. Another pass from Dorrington to Wells accounted for our last tally. McMahon made the extra point.

Seven Thoughts For The Week

By CAPT. KRIESLER

Do not leave your work for tomorrow.

Do not argue. — From arguments light will not rise, because it will be extinguished by passion.

A Christian prayer cannt be a monologue.

Make few projects. — Make definite projects. — And, carry them out with God's help.

Are you bored? It is because you have the senses awaken and the soul asleep.

Do not criticize negatively: if you cannot praise, shut-up!

You will never be sorry of having kept silent; of having spoken, you will be sorry many a time.

About Your Behavior

For years I have heard cadets saying the same old "verse" as an excuse for something wrongly done: But, Sir . . . Cadet Jones did it yesterday, and nobody reported him.

And to this I have to say: So, . . . what.

Come down from a very poor excuse. If you have done something wrong, do not try to find that excuse. In fact there is no excuse. Do not try to act as sheep; as if you were all equal. This may be very right among other kind of people. Not among you.

The fact that a cadet, an old cadet, an officer perhaps, does something wrog in front of you, does not mean that you have to imitate him, nor that his mistake will be an excuse for you tomorrow. You must have a personality, you must be yourself.

If Captain Doe cheats, no matter how many years he has been in the school, the fact of cheating is wrong, and you do not have to imitate him. The same applies if he is disrespectful, impolite, common, . . . Be you, not a mirror for someone else's defects!

Attention All Cadets U - Rooms Notes

So far as is known at this time, the Eisenhower Jacket will be official at A.M.A. next year. There is no present plan to change to the English style coat.

The present supply of Dress Coats is exhausted. If and when more are received the Corps will be notified.

A.M.A. has taken pride in the appearance of its Cadets particularly when they appear in parades away from the school. The M.S.T. Dept. has noticed some rather "Sad Sacks" in the Battle Group. Some alterations are needed by some of the old cadets. If there is financial problems involved in getting spruced up for such events, see Capt. Andrews privately or drop a note to the "Big Boy".

The tailor is here every Wednesday afternoon. Let's all make an effort to see him for needed alterations.

All New Cadets have been issued their shirt allowance for the first term — no more until after the Christmas holidays without written permission from the Principal. After the Holidays, New Cadets will be issued their balance of two shirts. Don't come to the Uniform Room for more than your allowance of shirts without a note from Mrs. Hunter's office.

At the request of the P.M.S. & T. no Officer's Brass will be issued without written approval. No Chevrons will be issued until official orders are read in the Mess Hall.

Both Band and Roller Rifle Patches are on order and will be issued upon receipt.

AMA Fencers Have Started Practice

The 1960-61 Fencing season has gotten under way with a large turnout of candidates for first positions on the team.

Those returning from last season's squad include: Tackett, Lobalzo, Popovich, J. Davis, C. Coiner, T. Trimble, Steele, McVver.

At the present writing all instructions is bring given on the foil basis as that is the primary weapon before going into sabre or epee.

Among the new prospects we see: the Carnegie brothers, Wilson S., Gorton, Tompkins, Puckett, Ambrose, Ennis, B. Jones, Proutt and Lemmon.

About thirty candidates have reported thus far and indications look for at least 50-60 to try out for the sport and remain on the squad for the season.

Meets have been planned with Hampden Sydney College, V.M.I., UNC, Johns Hopkins, Frotsburg Teachers College.

The highlight of the season is the annual meet with the Navy Plebes at Annapolis, Md.

This season two of the three weapons will be electrified: foil and the epee. These weapons will remove any doubt as to who goes the honor of winning a particular match.

There is still time for those yet interested in coming out for the team to participate. Just drop down to Hoover Hall each afternoon and a welcome awaits you.
